Note: in order to accommodate your start date, payment for selected courses must be received by the 10th day of the month prior to your intended start date.

The following rules apply to the challenge for credit process. Indicate your understanding and agreement of the process by checking off the following boxes:

- I have consulted and received approval to challenge a course from the appropriate faculty member (required).
- I understand that the three-month contract cannot be extended.
- I understand that there is no provision for withdrawal from a course taken via the challenge for credit process once the registration is processed.
- I understand that there is no tutor or faculty member support.
- Students registering for challenge for credit will have access to AU print learning resource materials, limited to bound textbooks and print readings at full cost (defined as AU's full purchase cost, plus shipping, plus a 20 per cent handling fee). Any fees assessed for learning resource materials are non-refundable. If I would like to order the learning resources available to me, I must contact Materials Management (cmat@athabascau.ca).
- It is recommended students ensure the availability (and purchase) of learning resource materials after approval is obtained to challenge a course and prior to submitting this Challenge for Credit Course Registration.
- If there is a challenge exam, I must follow the rules set out by the Undergraduate Exam Request and Completion Policy and its procedures.
- I understand that supplemental exams are not allowed in the Challenge for Credit process.
