

Research Assistant Opportunity
Casual Position
Corporate Boards and Sustainability Not-for-Profits

Start Date: August 1, 2022

Overview:

This project aims to understand the motivations and contributions of business representatives as directors of not-for-profits focused on sustainability issues. We have already conducted the collection of quantitative data through a survey and at this stage we are conducting interviews in Spanish with some board members. These interviews need to be qualitatively analysed.

The work to be conducted by the selected RA (RA 2) involves reviewing transcriptions, analysing data using a qualitative content analysis software, and reporting findings. Meetings will be arranged to discuss details and appropriate support will be provided by the research team.

The successful candidate will work with Dr. Eric Wang and Dr. Eduardo Ordonez-Ponce at Athabasca University.

Qualifications, knowledge and skills:

- Spanish reading skills
- Experience with qualitative content analysis
- Good management of appropriate software
- Excellent data management and communication skills
- Excellent writing skills
- Ability to work independently, and comply with deadlines and schedules

The RA position will last until the end of October 2022, with a total of about 80 hours.

The position can be based anywhere in Canada.

How to apply:

Qualified individuals are encouraged to submit their application by email to Dr. Eduardo Ordonez-Ponce at eduardo.ordonez@athabascau.ca. Applications should include (as a single PDF file) a brief cover letter that summarizes your skills, interests and experience relevant to the position; a current resume or curriculum vitae; an unofficial copy of your transcript; and the contact information for 2 references.

Evaluation of applications will begin immediately and will continue until a suitable candidate is found. All applicants are thanked for their interest in this position; however, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

We are committed to employment equity and encourage applications from women, Indigenous peoples, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minorities.
