Students with a disability, who require academic accommodation, need to register with the Access to Students with Disabilities  Centre at Athabasca University. Notification of the need for academic accommodation must normally be provided to the program office no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the first day of class. It is the student's responsibility to register with the Disability Centre to request academic accommodation if required and to notify the instructor that such accommodation has been requested. Every reasonable effort will be made to accommodate individual student needs. However, because GCAP courses are paced, all student are required to participate weekly in the online discussion forums. There are also several courses where online exams are required.

Overview

This course is offered by the Centre for Nursing and Health Studies. Thesis students in Counselling and Nursing and Health Studies will take the course together. For a detailed course description please see the cross-listed course in that Centre: MHST 713: Advanced Quantitative Methods.
