Policy Statements

1. Program Review is a formal process of continuous improvement to ensure the maintenance of quality and rigor in degree programs at Athabasca University.
2. This policy is intended to reflect the University's commitment to the principles, goals, and ideals outlined in the CAQC Handbook.

3. Degree Program Reviews are undertaken at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Where associated certificate or diploma programs exist, they are also considered as part of the degree program review.
4. The Provost and Vice President, Academic is responsible for the review of degree programs. The Provost and Vice President, Academic may delegate this authority to Academic Deans.
5. For programs that operate outside of an Academic Faculty, the Provost and Vice President Academic may delegate responsibility for the review of degree programs as appropriate.
6. Each degree program is normally reviewed at five year intervals. The Provost and Vice President Academic may initiate a review at any time.
7. Degree program reviews are conducted according to expectations specified by the Office of the Provost and Vice President Academic (OP&VPA), and will normally include the sequence of self-assessment, external review, formal response and annual reporting specified in the Guidelines associated with this Policy.
8. The Office of the Provost and Vice President, Academic (OP&VPA) coordinates and provides the resources required to conduct the review of University degree programs.
9. In consultation with the Dean and the Program Council Chair for degree programs within academic faculties, and the designate for programs outside of faculties, the OP&VPA establishes a schedule of the programs to review in the forthcoming academic years. This schedule is provided to Academic, Planning Policy and Standards Committee (APPSC) for information no later than the final meeting of the academic year.
