1. Purpose

As part of ongoing efforts to support learner mental health and wellness, and to recognize the impact of the pandemic, Athabasca University is giving learners the option to opt for a flexible grading option for any one course per academic year (September through August).

2. Scope

The Policy is applicable to both undergraduate and graduate learners attending the University. The Policy is temporary and will be in force for courses completed between March 1, 2020 and December 31, 2022. This Policy will be reviewed in December 2022 to determine if it needs to continue, based on the current pandemic situation.

NOTE: The flexible grading option may not apply for courses with external accreditation requirements. In such cases, these courses and programs will be ineligible. Learners should consult with Academic Advising for guidance.

4. Guiding Principles

 - i. Undergraduate learners must have passed the course with a grade of C- or higher.
 - ii. Graduate learner must have passed the course with a grade of B- or higher.
- c. Official final grades must have been posted for the select course before any request for Compassionate Grading is considered. The request must be made within 30 days of the end of this Policy.
- d. The grade will become unweighted and will not be included in their GPA calculation. It will appear on the learner's Official Student Record (transcript) as a "P" for Pass.
